Link Corsi	https://www.ucl.ac.uk/prospective-students/study-abroad-at-ucl/subjects/european-languages-culture-society School of European Languages, Culture & Society (SELCS) Students usually need to take at least 50% of their courses within the department they are admitted to, but may choose up to 50% as electives from other departments (subject to availability, course tutor approval and meeting any prerequisites). There are however some instances where 100% of courses must be taken within the admitting department. For students applying to the School of European Languages, Culture and Society, they should be aware that the department offers very few English Literature modules and students are expected to select modules across various subjects.
